THE 1966 SENECONIAN

VOLUME XVII

Presented By
the Yearbook Staff
of Seneca High School
Seneca
South Carolina

FOREWORD

THESE DOORS, the entrance to Seneca High School, have presented a challenge to each of us for the past four years. Through them we have come—happy and sad, exuberant and downcast. Sometimes we felt like failures, but the ultimate has been successful.

This is the Senior year to which we have always looked forward. Ours is the last class to be graduated from this old Seneca High School—the last class to enter and leave through these doors. We shall always remember our last days at SHS as days of glory; days in which the students took part in activities both academic and extracurricular; and days in which school spirit reached upward.

As we part from Seneca High School and from each other, it is the sincere hope of this staff that this, the 1966 Seneconian, will serve as a constant reminder of the final year we passed THROUGH THESE DOORS.

Faithful and true-hearted,
Let us sing our song of praise;
We revere her and defend her,
And her colors proudly raise.
We will stand for her united;
Of her deeds we gladly tell;
Her colors streaming, glad faces beaming,
So here's a song for her that we all love so well.

Honor she has taken,
On the track and with the ball;
May she always rank the highest,
May her colors never fall;
There's no other that can match her,
When her team is on the field;
Her boys are fleetest, her girls are sweetest,
Then, here's a song for her, for her who ne'er will yield.

CHORUS:

Joyous and ever loyal,
 Let us love our Alma Mater;
 Let every heart sing, let every voice ring;
 There's no time for grief
 or sorrow;
 It's ever onward, our course
 pursuing;
 May defeat ne'er our ardor
 cool,
 But, united, Alma Mater, we'll be true to you!

OUR MRS. BRUCE...

... because of her dedication to the profession she has chosen; because of the kind and helpful way in which she guides each student; because of her continual cheerfulness; because of her patience; because of the equal consideration with which she regards her students; and because of the interest she shows in our school and all phases of the school's activities, we dedicate the 1966 Seneconian to ...

Mrs. Gladys O'B. Bruce

THE DOORWAY

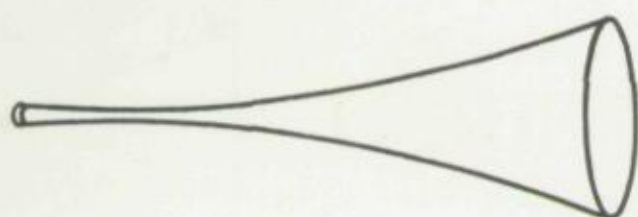

TO DEDICATION . . .

The faculty and administration at Seneca High School is of the highest quality. Although they come from varied backgrounds, they are united in one purpose—educating the students of Seneca High. Their dedication to this task is commendable. The students have grown to respect the faculty for their guidance in preparing them for the world they must meet upon graduation.

OF SHS

at night to improve SHS.

SHS is usually bubbling with news of this class and that class; of who got what honor; of this boy and that boy; of why a certain girl is crying today; of why someone is so exceptionally happy; of the latest sports success or failure; of who's been accepted to what college; just news of every kind, or news of nothing.

Pictured here are a few candid snapshots depicting SHS in 1965-1966.

SENIOR CLASS PRAYER

Our Most Kind and Gracious Heavenly Father,

It is at this time in our lives we especially come to Thee with our prayers of thanksgiving. These past few years have given us so much, and we bow in humble gratitude for our many blessings; we shall make our pledge to Thee to use the talents and knowledge we have gained.

We stand before Thee at the threshold of adulthood, ever so thankful for yesterday and its memories, for today and its opportunities, for tomorrow and its dreams. May we always be mindful that Thou hast guided us over the roads behind us, and that Thou will guard the bridges ahead of us. May we also remain secure throughout the rest of our lives with these words, "Thou art my rod and my staff"

Amen

THE DOORWAY

TO DETERMINATION

The underclassmen at SHS are represented by members of the Junior, Sophomore and Freshman classes. They each play an important part in the busy school year.

The Juniors, looking forward to being Seniors next year, financed, planned, and carried out the Junior-Senior. They held the annual magazine campaign and set a new record for sales.

The Sophomore Class, feeling more secure this year in the SHS atmosphere, have set some records of their own—both academically and extracurricular.

And the Freshman class, becoming used to the crowded halls and having lockers, have adjusted to high school life in a way most commendable.

Yes, the underclassmen represent the future of Seneca High School. It is up to them to carry on the ideals of our school.

THE DOORWAY TO

Each year, clubs play an important part in the school life at SHS. An activity period is set aside twice a month for clubs to meet during the regular school day.

Our clubs are a busy lot. There are all kinds of sales—Beta Club bake sale, FHA candy sale, FFA seed sale, Library Assistants Club flavorin sales, and many, many other projects. Club parties and banquets highlight the year, and club programs are in constant planning.

Clubs are indeed the doorway to participation and this certainly holds true, only doubly so, at Seneca High School.

THE

Activities could include almost anything, but at Seneca High School, we especially think of these as those groups of people who are really "on the go." Among these groups are the band and chorus. Each of these groups works hard year-round to better the musical side of Seneca High. The Bus Drivers, who have such a great responsibility day after day, are another of these groups. Finally there are the Seneconian (annual) staff and the "High Notes" (newspaper) staff to make Seneca High's activities well-rounded.

Through the doors of activity, one learns to work with others toward betterment of the school.

DOORWAY TO ACTIVITY

'66 SENECONIAN STAFF

Rachel Blanton, Art Editor

Lorraine Burgess and Class Editors.

Each year in April, Seneca High's yearbook staff distributes the SENECONIAN, a pictorial record of the activities of the past year. Guided by Mrs. Nancy T. Land, staff members are responsible for all phases of school life in the preparation of the annual. The Seneconian Staff gives up a sixth period study hall and some after school time in order to complete their specific tasks, such as editing, copy writing, making layouts, and preparing photographs. The work is hard, but rewarding.

The 1965-66 yearbook staff is comprised of an editor, assistant editor, business manager, seven class editors, three business staff members, an art editor, and two typists. Preparation for the annual began last June when staff members carried on the annual ad campaign to finance the annual, and was continued through February 15, when the final shipment was made.

"It was sometimes fun, and sometimes grueling, but certainly a helpful and memorable time as the '66 Seneconian was put together page, by page, by page."

WE PAY TRIBUTE TO...

MR. W. P. MABRY

To Mr. Mabry, because he has been so helpful to us and because he has been so understanding with us; we, the 1965-66 Seneconian Staff, pay a special tribute.

Perfection—a beautiful word. Features could be no better described; for, in truth, the features are the "perfected" part of our school year. Those who are honored here are truly honored for they have achieved that worth achieving, and they have made us proud of them.

MISS DAR GOOD CITIZEN

Miss DAR Good Citizen is chosen for her versatility in school life, in religious life, and in social settings.

Joan Pickle has exhibited her ability and poise in these areas, and the Senior Class is proud to have her as Miss DAR for 1966.

MISS JOAN PICKLE

Versatility is the key . . .

KING TEEN

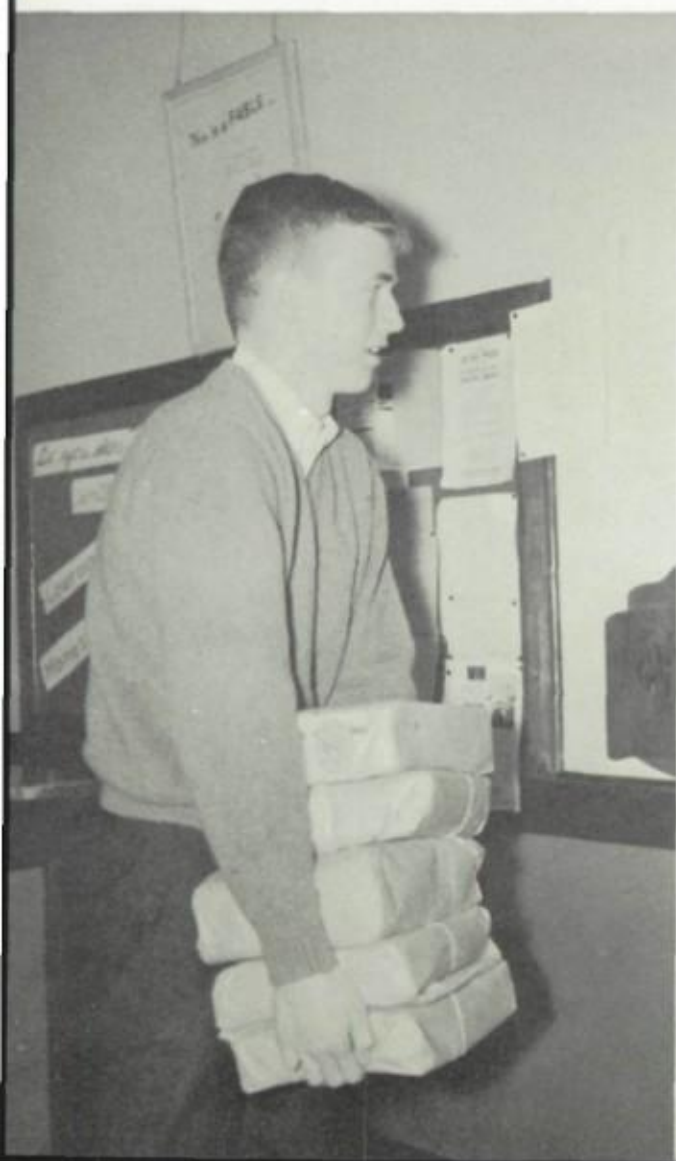

Each year the coveted title of King Teen is awarded to the senior boy who has exhibited the qualities which merit such a distinction. Sid Adams has proven that he is dependable, cooperative, and possesses academic excellence.

Sid participated in two programs at Wofford College, host for South Carolina King Teens—a program of testing and a social program. He attended the faculty panel discussion at the house of the Dean of Students in addition to taking IQ tests and scholarship exams. Highlights of entertainment at Wofford were a folk singing group from Wofford and its sister college, Converse, and a reception at the President's home.

"The weekend was very enjoyable and most profitable," reminisces Sid.

THE SCHOLARLY EIGHT

The privilege of leading the Seniors in the Honors Day program and the graduation exercise is earned by the two students who have the highest scholastic averages in the Junior Class for that year. The Junior Marshals for the graduating class of 1965 were Anita Bearden and Sidney Adams.

Six Juniors who have the next highest averages serve as the Ushers at graduation. The Ushers for the class of 1965 were Rachel Blanton, Alice Hare, Betty Tarrant, Don Shealy, Robert Knoerr, and Jimmy Black.

THE DOORWAY TO SP

Sports have always played an important part in high school life, and Seneca High is far from an exception to this rule. Sports boost school spirit and school spirit boosts sports—they go hand in hand.

Certainly, we at SHS are proud of all our teams and of all those who participate in sports events. Through the door of sports we build an even better school.

Carp,
 I've enjoyed hearing you cut up in Eng.
 this yr. You're a real sweet boy and even though you did try to help me (or whatever it ~~is~~ was you kept saying) I must have gone ahead instead of listening to you. Ha!
 Best of Luck always,

And so it was . . . our last year at Seneca High School . . . the last year we passed THROUGH THESE DOORS.

Donnie,

I don't really know where to begin telling you how great a boy you are. You are one of the sweetest, nicest, and cutest boys I know. You have a great sense of humor. I have enjoyed talking to you on the phone. (You remember the night Russell was there.) Also I have enjoyed talking to you at school and walking down the hall with you.

You are the kind of boy that a girl will never forget. I guess because you are always speaking and always so sweet. I want to ~~make~~ wish you the best of luck in everything you do. You deserve the best. Hope to see you this summer.

Love always,
Diane R.

Boy

~~These~~ have had a great time in your daddy's class. This year haven't ever (if you would come half the times) I'm going to be the only guy on the C.R. softball team with a higher batting average than me. That's not to bad tho since I'm all-american. No kidding you're a pretty good guy. Maybe we can play softball together when we (graduate) get out of school. Good luck to a great little ole kid.

Your Pal
Diane R.
(C. 1981)

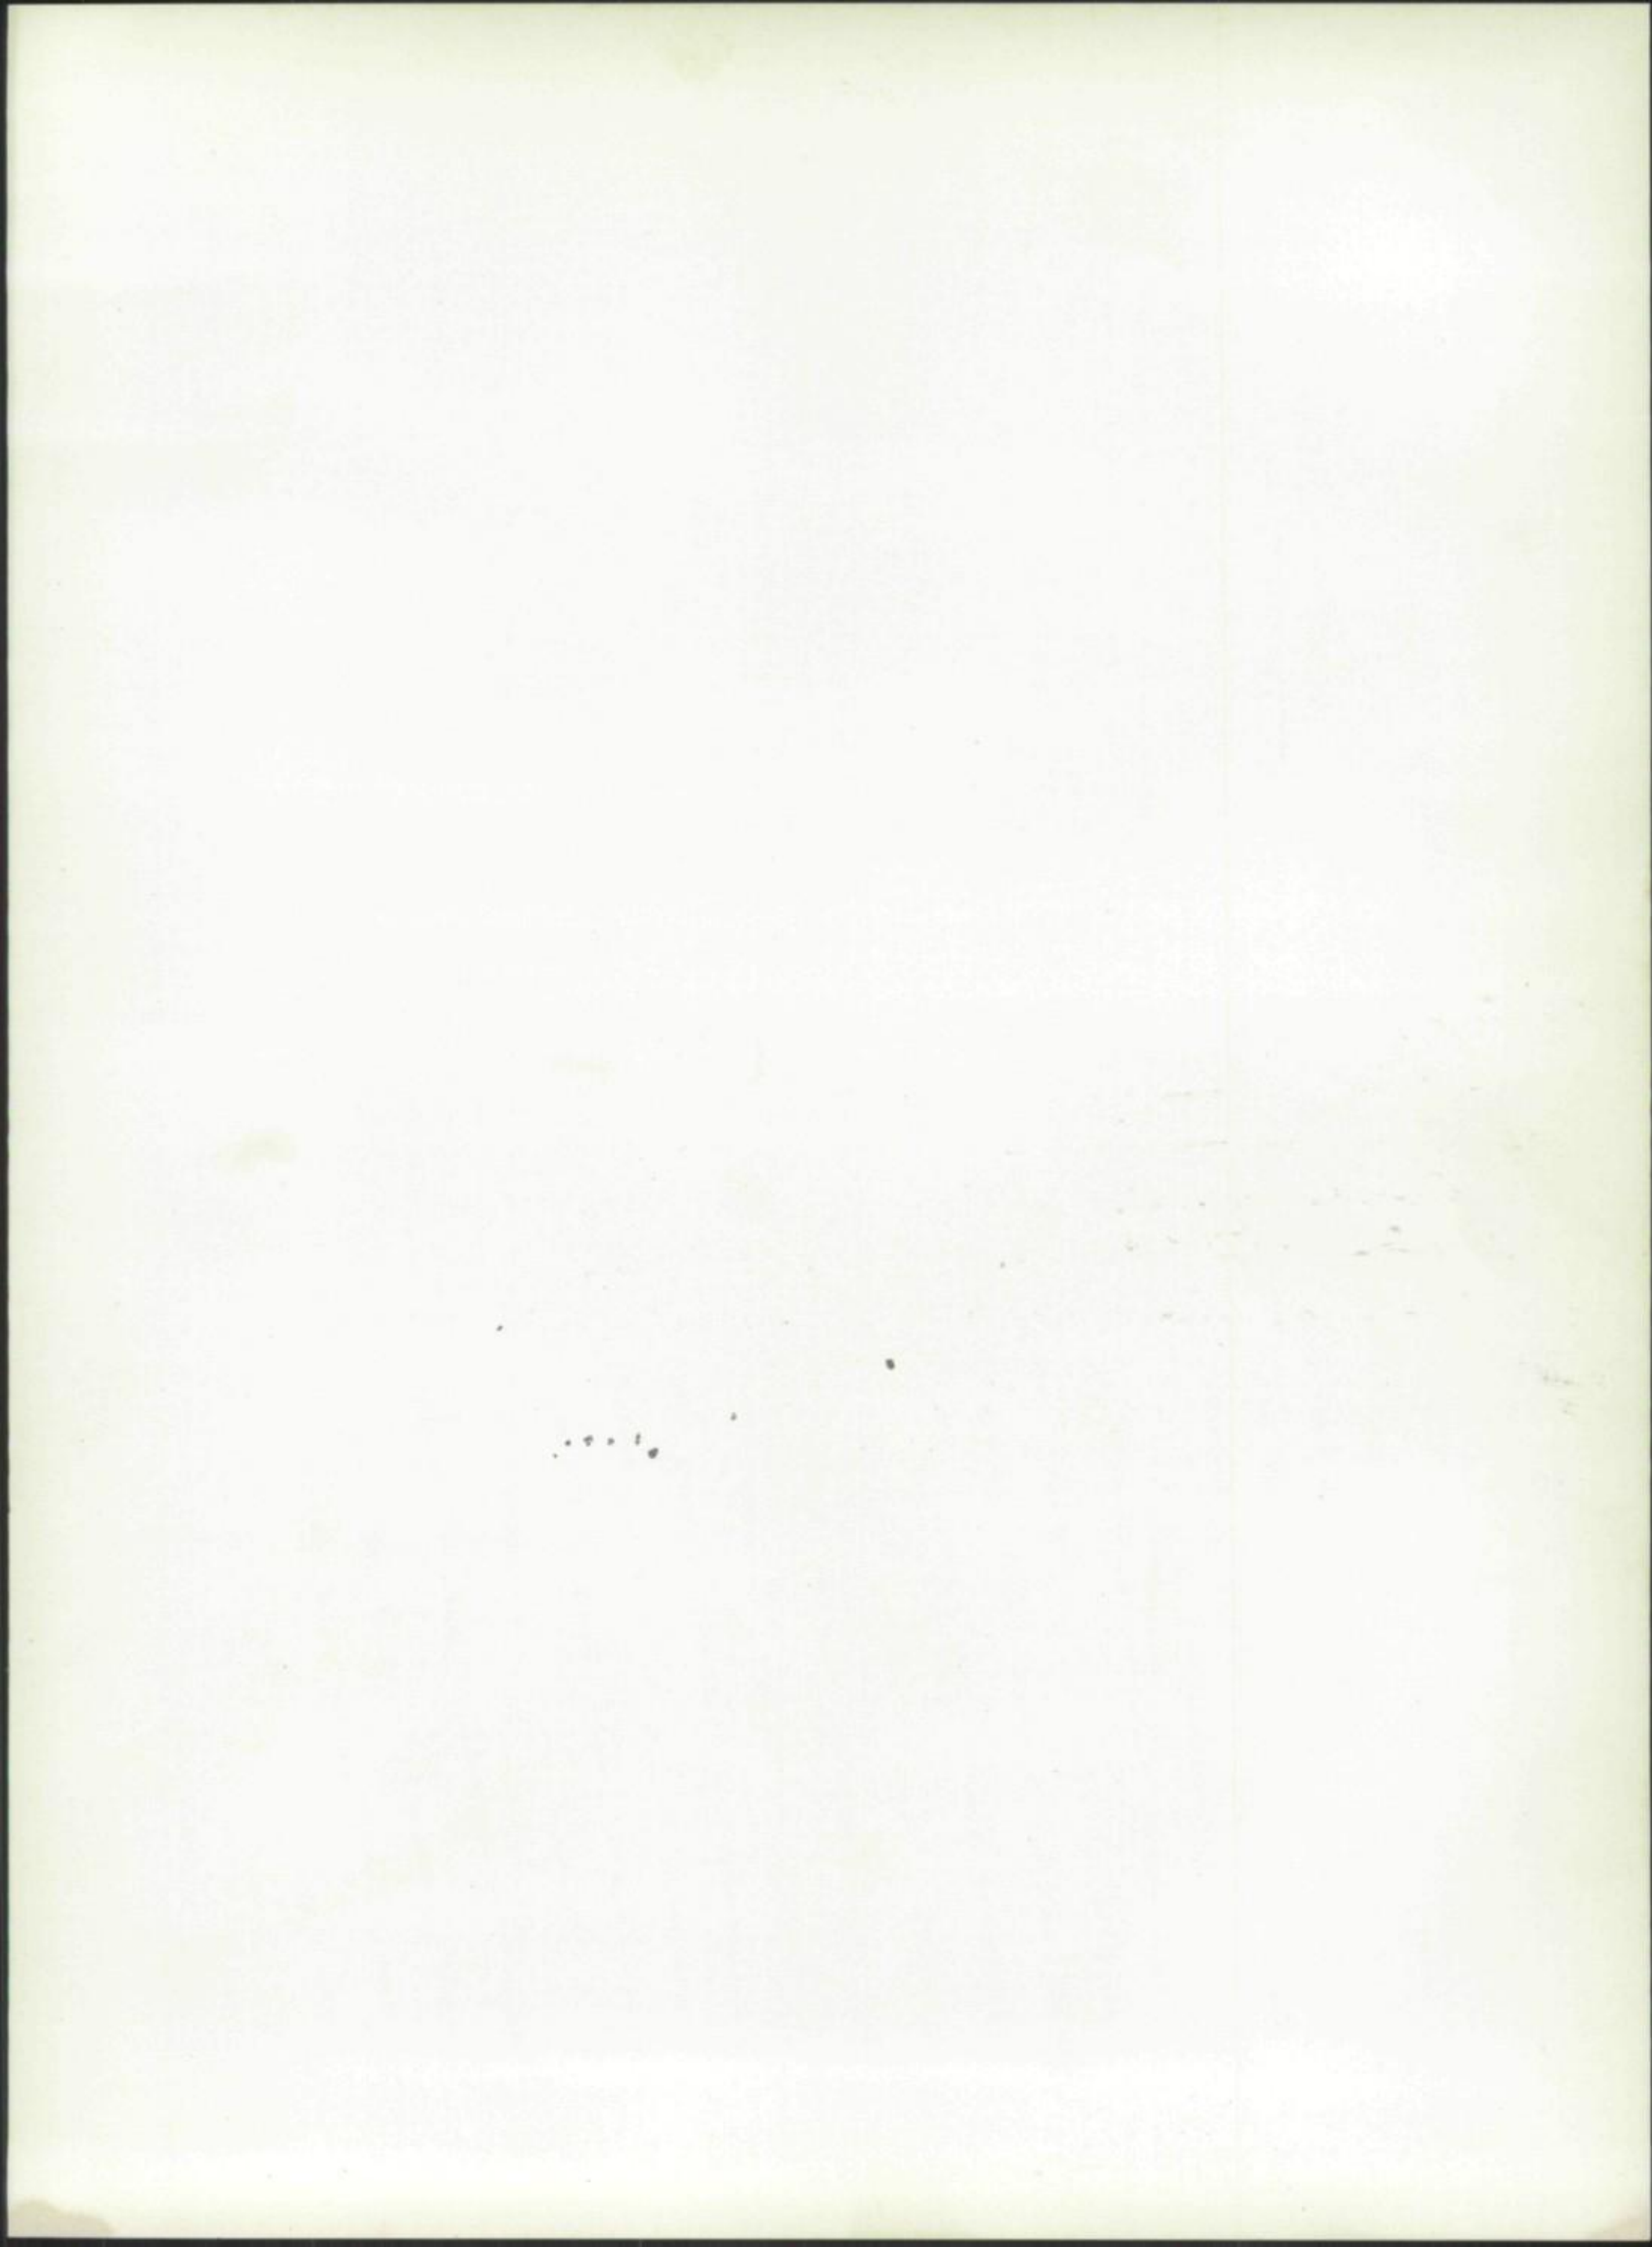

Dannie,

Well, I wonder if you will make it out of the 10th grade this year. I sure hope so. I have truly enjoyed knowing you this year. You are a very nice, sweet boy with a great personality. You have a good sense of humor, too. I have enjoyed ~~know~~ being in your study hall, also. Let's not be laying out school much more or Mr. Swing will be on your tail. Everybody I know likes you because you don't put on like some boys. You are understandable and intelligent.??! Be good and the best of luck always. Love
Teresa (1963)

Donnie,

I don't know you very well but I have saw you at a couple of baseball games! I wish you all the luck in the world! Remember all the seniors of 1966 when you graduate!!

Best wishes
Judy Rankin (1966)

Donnie,

It has been my pleasure knowing such a sweet boy as you. You have one of the best personality as anyone I have ever. Please stay this way and also ~~keep~~ the great sense of humor you have now. When ever I have gone down the halls of ole S.H.S. it always makes me feel better to see that cute smiling face of yours. It's a wonder how you keep all the girls away from you. Sincerely I hope to see a lot more of you during the summer and I will really miss you next year. Please don't forget me. I will be happy to graduate but I know I will miss going to school. I wish you your self and has to offer.

Love always,
Kaye

Donnie,
It's been great knowing you this past year. Stay the swell ~~off~~ guy you are.
Best wishes to a good friend.
Melissa

Donny,

I didn't know whether you wanted me to write in a little space or a whole page. Well I'm taking the privilege of writing on this page. I have thoroughly enjoyed knowing you these past few months. Last summer was one of the best summers I have ever had. We have had some real good times together, or that is I have. Ellen, Graham,
